NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO MOTHERS.

In a country where the rearing of infants is attended with somewhat exceptional difficulties and risk owing partly to climatic reasons, and partly to the difficulty of getting medical assistance in the 'camp,' an apology is hardly needed for publishing a small hand-book on the subject for the use of mothers. In Dr. Pennel's book on Infant Feeding an attempt has been made to explain in simple terms the reasons on which the various rules and recommendations are based, in order that a mother in modifying her child's diet from time to time as required, may be guided by common sense and not by the hundred and one conflicting counsels, with which she will be assailed. On sale at all bookstalls and libraries.

United Kingdom.

London, 25th—Sir Frederick Leighton, President of the Royal Academy, died here to-day. Born in Scarborough in December 1830, he was already 65 years old. A most prolific worker, he has left a host of admirable paintings to perpetuate his memory.

Italy

Rome, 25th—General Baratieri has telegraphed to the Minister of War announcing that Colonel Galiano found it impossible to continue holding out in Makallé and had consequently to capitulate, retiring on Adagamus escorted by a body of Ras Makonnen's troops, all honors of war conceded.

Telegrams from Adagamus state that a messenger from King Menelik with proposals of peace to General Baratieri is expected shortly there.

The news from Africa this morning caused great satisfaction here. The evening papers say that Negus Menelik has shown by his conduct towards the gallant defenders of Makalle that he sincerely wishes for peace with Italy, and they advise the Government to come to terms with him at once.

The Fanfulla denies to-day that there is any truth in the report recently circulated by several papers both in Italy and other countries, that a French vessel had been captured by a National cruiser, conveying arms for the use of the Abyssinians.

All the newspapers issued this afternoon special editions with the good news from Africa. They were bought up with the greatest eagerness by the public, overjoyed at the safety secured for the Makalle garrison.

A popular manifestation took place this evening in Naples in honour of the army, the bravery of Colonel Galliano and the garrison of Makalle being accorded a full share of recognition.

It is known that it was the Negus Menelik in persou who made to the Italian envoy Felter the offer to permit the garrison of Makalle to march out with arms and baggage. The generous behaviour of the Abyssinian monarch thus shown toward his gallant foes Colonel Galliano and his men, has caused here an excellent impression and it is believed that peace will now be quickly restored in the Colony.

Great rejoicings were also held in Mian. the streets being thronged by crowds which gave repeated cheers for Galliano and the garrison of Makallé who have throughout their trial carried themselves so heroically.

Germany

Berlin, 25th—The European Powers are going to call on the Japanese Government to evacuate the Peninsula of Corea.

The papers comment severely on the recent tumultuous scenes in the Reichstag. Emperor William has privately expressed his great displeasure at the scandal, and a hope that it will not be repeated.

Spain

Madrid, 25th—A telegram from Havannah states that the insurgents were defeated by the Spanish troops near San Antonio.

Confidence in the suppression of the revolution in Cuba is reviving here. The recent favorable news received is considered as the prelude to a final triumph over the rebels.

General Weyler embarked to-day in the port of Barcelona for Habana to assume his new post as Commander in chief and Governor General of Cuba. The Genera was frantically cheered by an enormous crowd collected to witness his departure.

The discontented workmen belonging to the cigar-factory of Seville marched today in procession through the principal streets hurling threats at the management of the factory. The police interfered and a numbers of persons were severely injured before the mob was dispersed. The factory has been closed and it is feared that fresh excesses may be committed by the workmen.

France.

Paris, 25th—The French Government has decided to take the initiative in calling an International Conference to form further rules for avoiding collisions and other accidents at sea. The recent numerous maritime accidents have induced the French Government to take this step.

The Chamber of Deputies voted today 80 million francs (£3,200,000) for the execution of various public works in Tonkin; recommenced by M. Rousseau the Governor General of that region. It is believed that the Senate will confirm the credit.

Austria

Vienna, 25th—It is said in political circles that the Emperor Francis Joseph is in favour of a renewal of the Triple Alliance between Austria, Germany aad Italy, provided some of its clauses be changed, and His Majesty will insist above all, if the alliance is to be renewed, on a reduction of the scale of armament imposed on Austria-Hungary.

Chile

Valparaiso, 25th—Exchange on London is quoted at 17 ⅝.

One million two hundreed thousand kilos of nitrate were sold last week.

The steamer Loa arrived this morning with Ministers Dardo Rocha, Rosas and Porra on board. At the breakfast which took place in the Archbishop's palace yesterday, speeches were made which breathed fervent sentiments for eternal peace between Argentina and Chile.

The Peruvian Minister Dr. Rosas will leave for Buenos Aires next Tuesday.

Dr. Rocha will remain here for a week.

A heavy shock of earthquake was felt last night.

Twenty-two thousand six hundred and three tons of "guano" were exported in 1895.

Wheat is sold in Talcahuano at 4.10 per hectolitre.

Brazil.

Rio Janeiro, 25th—There are fears of disorders in Bahia on account of the coming elections.

Government states that it will not oppose the placing of a cable on Trinidad island so long as Great Britain recognises Brazil's right to the territory.

Exchange is quoted at 9 5/32d.

Argentine Republic

Rosario, 25th—The Argentine Red Cross Society held a meeting last night to discuss the state of its finances. The Society has a balance in hand of $7890.

Several wheat operations were closed at $6.85 to 6.95. Some were done at $7.

Yellow maize for export sells at $3.15, but holders ask 3.25. Linseed remains at 9.90 to 10.30.

(Special Service of the Diario).

United Kingdom

London, 25th—Colonel Galliano left Makallé, taking with him the whole garrison, arms, ammunition, and the sick and wounded soldiers. The troops were in a wretched condition and could hardly walk.

Italy

Genoa, 25th — The Argentine cruiser Garibaldi will be ready at the end of March. Colonel Rivadavia has asked the Argentine Government for permission to change the present system of firing guns and introduce electricity, as is used on all the vessels built for the English navy.

United States

New York, 25th—Taxes will be increased in Cuba, in order to meet the enormous war expenses.

The rebels attacked Sabanillas, defeating the garrison. Reinforcements could not be sent for, as the rebels cut off all telegraphic communication. Three women were killed by stray shots.

Washington, 25th—The commission appointed by the Senate to look into the Anglo-Venezuelan difficulty is working at its task slowly but surely.

The principal papers in New York, except the Sun, are rejoicing over the peaceful aspect of the Anglo-Venezuelan Qeestion.

The Senate yesterday expressed a hope that the European Powers would put an end to the Armenian massacres. Some few Senators wanted to draw up a note, in energetic terms, protesting against the conduct of the Turkish authorities.

France

Paris, 25th—The Government denies the rumour that it takes any interest in Abyssinian affairs. The Temps states that Italy need fear nothing whilst France's interests are not tampered with.

The French Press states that the evacuation of Makallé is the forerunner of the end of the Abyssinian campaign.

DEATH OF PRINCE BATTENBERG.

There is something so indescribably sad in the death of this young man, cut off in the prime of manhood, with all that is supposed to make life most enjoyable, standing as it were at the foot of the throne, and surrounded with all the luxuries and splendours which only a chosen few are destined to enjoy, that we feel it our melancholy duty to give our readers a few mems, which may claim the "passing tribute of a sigh."

Prince Henry, and his two brothers were schoolmates of an English gentleman who was educated at Darmstadt, but is now, and for many years past, has been a resident of Buenos Ayres. Prince Alexander of Hesse, the father of Prince Henry, the Queen's son-in-law, was well known to every English resident in Darmstadt, the handsomest man in that city, but very poor and awfully hard up. He was uncle to the Grand Duke of Hesse, the husband of the late Princess Alice.

Prince Henry, whose sudden death at Sierra Leone has so startled the world, was educated at a plain going school in Darmstadt, he was born October 5th, 1856, and was six months older than his wife Princess Beatrice, the favourite daughter of our beloved Queen. He was married at the beautiful little Gothic church of Whippingham which is close to Osborne on 23rd July, 1885. Her Majesty gave Princess Beatrice away; the church was beautifully decorated with lilies, white roses and wreaths of fern, by the wife and daughter of Canon Prothero, Rector of Whippingham; about 200 persons were present.and Her Majesty wore on the occasion the great Koh-i-Noor diamond; all the guests were entertained in Marquees in the lawn at Osborne, and a couple of hours after the ceremony Prince Battenberg and his wife drove off to Quarr Abbey about 6 miles distant, the beautiful residence of Lady Cochrane, where they spent the honeymoon.

There were 5 seats of gold and velvet before the altar for the Queen, Princess of Wales, Princess Battenberg, the Grand Duke of Hesse and Prince Alexander of Hesse. Prince Henry, the bridegroom, was dressed in the white uniform with high boots of the Prussian Guards. The Queen gave away her beloved daughter.

It seems that the Queen was so fond of Princess Beatrice that she only consented to the match on condition that they should always live with her, and never as long as she lived keep a house of their own. Prince Henry, when he married, was an officer in the household of the Emperor of Germany, which gave him about £120 stg. to live on. Parliament voted him £6,000 a year on his marriage with Princess Beatrice, and it is believed the Queen advanced him £20 to £30,000 out of her own pocket. Princess Beatrice was a great favourite. Liverpool presented her with her wedding cake. She received presents the most valuable from all quarters. One of the richest was a gold tea service from the wealthy octogenarian banker Moses Montefiore, with the following inscription :—

"Many daughters have acted virtuously, but thou excelleth them all. May He who dwelleth on high cause His light radiantly to shine on thy head. May joy and gladness meet thee, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. May there be peace within thy walls and tranquillity within thy palaces, for now and evermore, is the fervent prayer of him who reverentially bows down himself.

Moses Montefiore.

The Queen had silver and bronze medals struck off, commemorating the wedding.

The St. John's Ambulance Association gave Beatrice a magnificent silver gilt mirror.

There was much in the character of Prince Henry that resembled Prince Albert, both were highly gifted and musical; both artists and litterateurs, and both cut off in the prime of life. Prince Albert was taken ill on Monday, and on Saturday night, before the people in London well knew anything of his illness, the death bell of St, Paul's rang out, which was the first announcement of his sickness and his death. Prince Albert was a very superior man, and his influence over the Queen was always beneficial. We read in Justin McCarthy's "History of our own Times" that it was the wise counsels of Prince Albert that saved England from declaring war against the United States over the Slidell and Mason affair; Prince Albert recognized the bonds of race, and his prudent counsels strengthened the determination of the Queen. Prince Henry of Battenburg was in character, education and training a second Prince Albert, and it was his very high sense of what he considered duty that led him from the palace to the dense forests of Africa and the dread fever shed of Coomassie. Lord Wolseley, who knew all about Gold Coast fever and Ashantee malarias, opposed the Prince joining the expedition, but Mr. Chamberlain, to please the Queen, favored the Prince's views, and one of the saddest pictures to look at is the parting scene at Liverpool between Prince Battenberg and his wife. It was given either in the Graphic or in Black and White, and last week was at the Ladies Club in Calle Florida. The Prince little thought when bidding his wife and children good-bye then, that he would never again see them. Such is death.

Prince Battenberg leaves the following children :—

Alexander Albert, born 23rd November, 1886.

Victoria Eugenie Julia, born 24th October, 1887.

Leopold Arthur, born 21st May, 1889.

Maurice Victor Donald, born 3rd October 1891,

Tho bereavement of poor Princess Beatrice with her four young children is terrible; she is a widow even earlier in life than the Queen her mother. Her case is a truly sad one, and the blow that has fallen on her is aggravated by the danger that this fresh sorrow may tell on the advancing years of Her Majesty. Poor Princess Beatrice! She is far from the land where her loved hero died and her sorrow may well be imagined. On the 6th February the war-vessel with her husband's remains may be expected in England.

Oh make him a grave where the sunbeams rest
When they promise a glorious morrow,
They'll shine oer his sleep, like a smile from the West,
From his own lov'd Island of sorrow.

NOTES FROM PARIS.

CURIOUS STREET-INCIDENT.

Paris, Xmas 1895.

Ah! Monsieur! Do not put me in prison. I have done nothing wrong!"

The plaintiveness of the request, the tearfulness of the intonation, and I am free to admit, an idle feeling of curiosity arrested both my attention and progress, yesterday as I sauntered, with the eagle eye of the journalist and the lazy pace of the "flâneur", through a side-street in one of the most populous quarters of this gay city. With the exception of the diminutive crowd, the "attroupement" (which I speedily joined) the street was almost deserted, and in fact it seemed strange that so much quiet should prevail within a stone's throw from that glorious and noisy torrent of human life in all its stages and commercial movement in all grandeur — the Boulevard. Oh! You must not carry your eyes in your pocket when you cross the Boulevard, for you may run up against a bus or a cab with the same facility with which you knock up against a king or a prince in a café. The plaintive voice, which attracted my notice, was that of a woman—a duchess, a princess, a queen perhaps, since these titles abound in this republican city. No. It was something more tender than a plump duchess, more interesting than a princess, grander even than a queen. It was a mother, a strayed, bewildered, fainting mother, and this is her story: "Oh! I am so tired, tired, and so hungry. I have eaten nothing for two days. I spent all the money on the road. I walked, walked—walked until the soles of my boots gave way, and my feet pain me. I cannot stir. I come from Alsace to spend Xmas with my sons here. Do you know my sons? I thought I should at once find them, for I thought Paris was like my own village. But it is so big, and nobody knows my sons." A d—d donkey, standing beside me, burst out laughing and elbowed his way out with the exclamation

"Ah! elle est bonne, celle la!", but the rest of us were moved by this woman's story more, perhaps, than we should have cared to admit. There was something really sublime in this woman's simplicity, that most rare and exquisite simplicity which one would compare to Goldsmith's muse:—

Still first to fly where sensual joys invade.

There are, I know, several kinds of simplicity. There is the simplicity of the statesman who believes himself to be great: there is the simplicity of the poet, who thinks the world is a dream; that of the savant who in the pursuit of a problem forgets the "tellus et domus et placens uxor"; that of the soldier, whose voice is still for war, which he considers the natural state of man: there is the simplicity of the editor who thinks his subscribers will pay ten years in advance—all that is harmless simplicity. There is the simplicity of virtue—there is also the simplicity of vice. But that most exquisite mixture of an all-conquering motherly love and a blind crass and rustic ignorance, blended with a faith sublime and such ideas only as the unlettered muse of tradition teaches and suggests—that simplicity is most rare, so rare that this woman's case may be classified as "commencement-de-monde in contradistinction to the fin-de-siecle touch that emasculates this century, unsexes our women, degrades the stage, deprives youth of its freshness, life of its poetry, and prompts the citizen to sell his own and betray his country's honor.

Hugo would have revelled in the scene which I had occasion to contemplate yesterday, and which I make no apology for describing here. He would have distilled the essence of this sublime simplicity into a couplet with the same felicity with which he has crushed the grandeur and the immensity of the ocean into two lines:—

Tu me montres ton immense grace
Melée de ton immense horreur!

For Hugo excelled in grappling the sublime, which the eye of his genius perceived in everything—in the majesty of the ocean, in the pages of History, in the working of the heart, in the folds of the human conscience, in the gambols of infancy, in the life of the street-Arab, in the very sewers of Paris. Mark the magestic sweep of his pen, and the ease, the superb, the masterly ease with which he condenses into a few lines an epoch and a volume of history:—

Ce siecle avait deux ans! Rome remplacait Sparte,
Déja Napoléon percait sous Bonaparte
Et du premier consul, trop gené par le droit,
Le front de l'Empereur brisait le masque étroit!

The mould in which Hugo was cast is broken, but the contrasts which he gloried in studying still exist. They present themselves under every shape and every form, like Proteus. What we lack is an Aristœus to seize the ever-changing monster and compel him to divulge the secret he embodies and the lesson he contains. There is a murmur in each wave of the ocean, and there is, doubtless, a lesson in each event in existence. And indeed this woman's case combines all the requisite circumstances "to point a moral and adorn a tale."

To the cynic its ridiculous features are but too apparent—in the first place—in this fin-de-siecle epoch, it seems singular that a mother should attach more than a superficial interest to the movements or whereabouts of her grown-up progeny. The polish of society would appear to be fatal to the heart and its nobler sentiments, and indeed the stifling of motherly affection, and for that matter affection of any sort, is to-day an indication of "bon ton." And then could anything be funnier than this woman's odyssey? The poor woman's surprise that Paris was not like her village will put your classical readers in mind of the bewildered impressions of the ingenuous Tityrus on his first visit to Rome:

Urbem quam dicunt Romam, Melliboee, putavi
Stultus ego, huic nostre similem, etc.

From the ridiculous to the sublime there is but a step. The incident I have related contains many laughable features no doubt, they pale into insignificance and disappear beneath the splendor of a feeling which, in Paris, is found like a lost pearl, in the gutter—and one does not stop to think of the mud when stooping to pick up the jewel—a feeling that upholds a society it often despises, that would seem like the atmosphere to become rarified in proportion to altitude—and which, perhaps, is not to be found in the higher stories of the gaudy fabric called Society, because it is the corner-stone, the basis and foundation of the brilliant structure.

Scævola.

P. S.—In running off, as usual, at a tangent I had almost forgotten to relate the "denouement" of the incident. In a fainting condition the woman was conveyed to the nearest "poste," where she was restored to her senses by means of cordials and subsequently to her sons by means of detectives, who are really wonderful at ferreting out people, although they do make a dismal mess of their business when sent to capture fraudulent bankrupts and national swindlers. The mother dines this evening with her two sons.

THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

A valued subscriber sends us the following important additions and corrections to our article on the U. S. Navy published on Thursday.

The Indiana, Massachusetts and Oregon have belts 18 inches thick, the ends being joined at the principal barbettes, forward and aft, with 14 inches 5 diagonal bulkheads. The barbettes for the 13 inches guns are 17 inches thick and the turrets 18 inches. The barbettes and turrets for the 8 in. guns are 8 in. and 6 inches thick respectively, and the 6 in guns (which are being replaced by quick-fire guns of the same calibre) are carried in casemates of 6 in. armour. There is a 5 in. belt above the thick belt extending to the main deck, with diagonal ends meeting back of the barbettes and forming an upper citadel. On top of the thick belt, is a 3 in. deck which extends to the ends of the ships: beyond the bulkheads it slopes down to below the water line. The small quick-fire armament of the above named ships, as well as the Iowa and the new ships of the Kearsage class, consists of 20 6 pounder and 6 one pounder quick-fire and 4 machine guns.

The Monitor Monterey has 13 in of armour on her sides; 14 in. on her forward or 12 in. gun barbette; 11½ in. on her after or 10 in. gun barbette, and 8 in. and 7½ in. on the turrets covering the 12 in. and 10 in. guns respectively.. She carries 14 small quick-fire and machine guns besides her heavy guns.

The Texas is not, and never was, considered to be an armoured cruiser, she is a second class battle-ship, and has 12 in. of armour on her belt, on the redoubt and on the turrets. She carries 12 6 pounder and 6 one pounder quick-fire and 4 machine guns besides the large guns.

The Maine, although classed as an armoured cruiser, is more properly a second class battle-ship, her armour is of the same thickness as that of the Texas and she carries 10 6 pounder and 6 one pounder quick-fire and 4 machine guns beside her large guns.

The Monitors referred to as not yet completed, are completed, possibly with two exceptions, and these two will be completed in a few weeks if one of them has not already been. There are five of them. The Puritan, of 6100 tons (incomplete), the Miantonomoh, Amphirite and Terror (completed) and the Monadock (incomplete). These last four ships are of 4000 tons displacement. The Miantonomoh and Terror have 7in. of side armour, and 11½in. of turret armour. Their turrets are of the roller base type, and they mount 4 10in. breechloading rifles and 8 quick-fire and machine guns each.

The Amphirite and Monadnock have 9in. of side armour's 11½ in. of armour on their barbettes and 7½ in. on their turrets. They are armed with 4 10in. breechloading rifles, 2 4in. 33 pounder and 6 smaller quick-fire and 2 machine guns.

The Amphirite is in commission with the fleet in Hampton Roads, and the Miantonomoh and Terror which were commissioned for months and then laid up "in ordinary" have apparently been placed in reserve with reduced crews, ready for an emergency.

The Puritan, has 14in. of side armour, the same thickness on her barbettes and 8in. on the turrets. She mounts 4 12in. 46 ton breechloading rifles, 6 4in. 33 pounder and 10 smaller quick-fire and 4 machine guns.

The Iowa has a high freeboard forward and carries her 12in. bow guns, some 26ft above the water, there is a 14in. belt, 15in. barbettes for the 12in. guns, and 8in. barbettes for the 8in. guns. Her large turrets are covered with 15in. armour and the small turrets with 6in. and there is 5in. of armour above the thick belt, up to the main deck, as in the Indiana class. It is stated that the 6 4in. quick-fire guns originally intended to form part of her armament are to be replaced with 6 5in. quick-fire guns. This ship's keel was laid in February, 1893, and the contract calls for her completion within three years from that date.

The New York and Brooklyn carry their 8in. guns in barbette turrets (the 8in. bow guns of the Brooklyn are some 30ft. above the water) and their large rapid-fire guns behind 4in. of armour. They both have decks varying in thickness from 3in. on the flat, to 6in. on the sloping sides amidships. They have belts of hardened steel, 4in. and 3in. thick respectively, backed by a double thickness of hull plating, and 8ft. broad, extending along the sides in the wake of the "vitals."

The New York's barbettes are 10in. and the Brooklyn's 8in. thick, and the turrets of both, 6in. thick.

The Olympia, of 5,800 tons displacement, cannot properly be said to be a small edition of the Columbia. She is very fast, but is much more of a fighting ship than the Columbia class. Her four 8 in. guns are carried in two barbette turrets of 4 in. hardened steel, and her ten 5 in. quick-fire guns are mounted behind 4 in. of steel and have 4 in. shields. There are 14 6-pounder and 6 one-pounder quick-fire guns, and four machine guns in the auxiliary battery. Her armoured deck varies in thickness from 2½ in. on the flat to 4¾ in. on the slopes amidships, and she has a complete belt of compartments filled with cellulose, wide and deep, at the water line.

The Baltimore, Philadelphia, San Francisco, &c., class of cruisers differs from contemporaneous foreign ships of the same tonnage and of the cruiser class, in that they have thicker decks, higher speed and heavier batteries. These vessels will soon exchange their breech-loaders of the ordinary class for quick-fire guns.

With the exception of the side armour of the Miantonomoh, and the turret armour of the same ship (which is English compound armour) all the American armoured ships have nickel steel armour, and most of them Harveyed nickel steel, or the new double-forged Harveyed nickel steel.

The following table gives some important data of the U. S. naval cannon:—

Calibre, inches	Weight, Tons	Length in calibres	Weight of projectile, pounds	Perforation in wrought iron at muzzle, in. †
13	61	35	1100	34½
12	46	35	850	31½
10	27½	35	500	26½
10	25	20	500	24
8	16	40	250	21½
8	13½	35	250	20½
6	6	40	100	15½
6	5¼	35	100	14¾
*5	3¼	38	50	13
*4	1½	38	53	10

* Quick-fire guns. † Krupp's formula. The perforation given is figured from velocities obtained with ordinary powder. With smokeless powder the perforation is much greater, as the velocity of the projectiles is considerably increased, and this, too, without increasing the pressure in the bore of the gun.

The U. S. naval cannon are considerably more powerful than the guns of the same calibre mounted on the ships of any of the great European naval powers. The new 12 in., 10 in., 8 in. and 6 in. English guns (wire wound) are slightly more powerful than the U. S. guns of the same calibre, but there are very few yet mounted on board ship. The French have some guns of great power, but they are so long that they are considered objectionable by American, English, German and Italian experts.

The 12 in. guns carried by the British, "Admiral class" of battle ships develope but 18,000 foot-tons of muzzle energy, the U. S. 12 in. guns develope 25,000 foot-tons (both with brown powder), and the new British 12 in. wire guns 33,000 foot-tons, using Cordite smokeless powder.

WESTWARD HO!

THE SOUTH CORDOBA CAMPS.

ALFALFA FOR EVER!

"EL CRISTIANO."

Rio V°.

The "El Cristiano" estancia is a great estate, a model farm. "Don Manuel," as we call the Lord of the Manor, has here a property of 400 kilometres square, say 100,000 acres, which is more than old Hamburg State possesses. On this splendid estancia there are 27,000 head of cattle of English and Dutch breed, pure and "mestizo." He has also 3,000 horses of all breeds from Europe. Last, not least, he has 15,000 pure criollo sheep. The gallant Commander believes that this breed must command a high price, as it is quite neglected, and he is right, as the sales of wool prove every year.

On this, as on the other estancias, the great aim is to breed animals for the foreign markets, whether Chile, Brazil, or Europe. This can only be done by extensive alfalfa cultivation to fatten animals at an early age rapidly to a certain point, more especially for England, where they want a young animal of heavy weight. Alfalfa, therefore, is cultivated hereabouts on a great scale, and the results are most remunerative, owing to the facility with which this grass grows and its lasting nature in this privileged soil.

On the "Cristiano" estancia Commander Espinosa has already ten thousand acres under alfalfa and 10,000 more acres will soon be ready. The Commander devotes all his attention to the Hereford breed of cattle, as they are hardier than the Durham and can stand drought and parched camp much better. The bane of this zone is the dry weather, although water is near the surface, abundant and of good quality.

* * *

When the cattle are 2½ years old they are driven into the alfalfa fields; in six months they are fit for the Chilian and the Brazilian markets. It requires ten months to fatten them up to the standard of the Deptford market.

Water is supplied in abundance by two Abyssinian wells that give 20,000 litres per hour. We are of opinion, however, that an artesian well would suit the purpose of the estancia better, and as the place is expanding and developing fast the artesian boring must be adopted sooner or later, not only on this great estancia, but on others of equal area.

* * *

You have no idea of the growth of this cattle business. I saw a "rodeo" here of 800 head of magnificent animals, sold at the rate of $40 gold per head, ready to start for Station Washington en route for the Darsena. This single item will give you an idea of the importance of Commander Espinosa's estancia. Count the estancias in Buenos Ayres that can do as much.

Another consideration is the enormous increase in cattle fed on alfalfa fields; you can reckon on 60%; in no part of the world, not even in Abyssinia, so graphically described by your collaborateur Mr. A. McDonald, can such results be obtained. In this business Argentina can compete easily with the United States and Canada, owing to cheaper land and much milder climate. Australia is at a decided disadvantage owing to distance from consuming markets, inferior soil, and dry climate. The great blessing of this zone is the superabundance of good water near the surface.

In Buenos Ayres you have got hold of an idea that the South of Cordoba is very far. A mistake. It is nearer than the Sauce Corto in the South, which you consider quite close, but the climate here is far better than in the South, and water is available at 2 to 3 metres from the surface; thanks to the sandy features of the soil the cattle know no disease and alfalfa grows to the water, which is close, and lasts for ever. I know alfalfa fields here of 40 and 50 years standing and as vigorous as ever—rather more so; it gives 4 cuttings per annum; an acre of alfalfa gives us on an average in sale of seed alone 100$ per annum, "Que tal?".

As happened years ago in California and recently in the Transvaal, settlers who bought lands for a song found themselves wealthy twixt night and morn through gold discoveries; just so in the Rio V°, the lands that were selling not long ago for next to nothing in the market are now worth thousands as people have discovered that the South of Cordoba is the best alfalfa soil in the Republic. As long as the London market buys our fat steers these Rio V° camps will flourish and their alfalfa fields will coin fortunes. The practical British mind sees this, and British capital is going fast into these camps: the Anglo-Saxon element figures conspicuously in the South of Cordoba.

THE CRUISE OF THE FLEET.

The Argentine fleet, comprised of the 9 de Julio, Libertad, 25 de Mayo, Almirante Brown and Patria arrived safely at Port Madryn on the 14th after a pleasan voyage and most instructive cruise.

The fleet left at noon on the 9th inst. anchoring that night near Punta del Indio, in two lines, the distance between each vessel being 500 metres.

The squadron weighed anchor next morning at 4 a.m. and continued the voyage in the same order of sailing. In the afternoon the order was changed and the vessels came into one line, increasing the distance between each other to 700 metres.

Mar del Plata was sighted and passed on the morning of the 11th. That afternoon the fleet went through a series of manoeuvres, all of which were carried out without a single hitch and shewed that officers and men knew how to handle the vessels under them. The search lights came into play on the night of the 12th; besides this a great amount of signalling was done, the vessels manoeuvring the same as in broad daylight.

The order of sailing was changed on the night of the 13th. The 9 de Julio keeping 700 metres ahead of the rest, whilst the Libertad and Brown followed in a line, behind which came the Patria and 25 de Mayo. Shortly afterwards the vessels anchored at sunset in Port Madryn. Sham fights, target practice and further manoeuvres will be gone through before the fleet returns to La Plata.

The reserve squadron, comprised of the Independencia, Patagonia and Plata under the command of Captain Lorenzo Irigaray is going through a series of manoeuvering and target practice near Banco Chico. The target will be placed at distances varying from 1,500 to 3,000 metres. This is the only possible way to make a fleet a fleet.

GRAFTON STREET (LATE CALLE PIEDAD).

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

"Woodman spare this tree". Having, during the last seven years spent—and spent cheerfully—what might, without exaggeration, be termed "una suma regular" (not a small portion of which has found its way into the coffers of STANDARD Court), in the laudable task of impressing my business address on the public mind, I strongly object to the inconsiderate way in which you would make me perform my seven years' task all over again, and inform said "respetable público" that my address is not Piedad 513, but 513 Grafton Street!

"Seven years for Leah and seven years for Rachel" may suit some people, but I am wedded to Calle Piedad and will not recognize Grafton or any other street.

Whilst the Asphalt could not be better, the confusion you are causing could not be greater, and your cellar deserves to experience a severe and protracted "seco".

Yours indignantly,

J. Brown.

DON CONRAD HUGHES.

(From the M. Video Times.)

We much regret to announce the death of Don Conrado Hughes, which occurred on his estancia at Paysandu quite suddenly on Tuesday evening from the result of a fit. Mr. Hughes was born in this country some 52 or 53 years ago, his father being the English settler Mr. Richard Huges, who was one of the pioneers of the importation of fine stock into this country. His mother was a Miss Rucker. Don Conrado followed the progressive lines initiated by his father, and his estancia was one of the largest and most important in the north-west of the Republic, being devoted to both stock-farming and agriculture on a large scale and also being the seat of a flourishing model colony. He was also a prominent and influential member of the Rural Association. In personal character he was upright, affable and kind-hearted, and enjoyed the high esteem and respect of the English community, of natives, and of all who worked under him. He was a frequent visitor to this capital, where he was always welcomed by a large circle of friends. He was married to a daughter of Don Pancho Gomez, and his widow and a large family survive to lament his loss. His sudden death is sincerely lamented in all circles, and we add ours to the very general condolences expressed with his bereaved family.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Mr. Brown, the well-known estanciero of Toay, has arrived from that distant quarter with the good news that the extensions of the Bahia Blanca North Western and the Buenos Ayres Western Railways will have train termini in the "pueblo" before the end of the year. Last night the engineers of the Western Railway left for Trenquelauquen to complete the survey to Toay (that is to say Brown's Toay not Santa Rosa de Toay—for there are two Toays, the right one and the survey one.) The surveys had already been made up to the survey Toay and are now carried on three leagues further to Brown's Toay. The distance from Trenquelauquen to the latter may be put down at 165 kilometres and in six months the Buenos Ayres Western Railway Co. will begin active building on this more important extension. Before the end of the year the Bahia Blanca North-Western Railway which at present terminates at Hucal will have its terminus also at Toay—an extension of about thirty leagues. Thus this Toay is coming rapidly to the front and it is a place of undeniable, strategic importance; in time a line of railway will have to be built from Villa Mercedes, also to complete the net-work of rails. Mr. Brown states that all the farmers in the territory are doing well and sheep and cattle thrive on those lands. All the steers of that zone have been bought up by Chilian agents—they have made a clean sweep this season.

The Finance Minister has revoked the permission given to the Central Argentine Company to sell 1,300 tons of old steel rails to Messrs. Mulet Ruiz and Co.

SPORT.

CRICKET.

Retiro A. C. v. Palermo C. C.

The following players will represent Retiro against Palermo to-day on Retiro ground: Play to commence at 12 sharp:—J. Jenkins, F. Bruce Percy, A. Venn, H. Lovett, E. Smith, F. Green, J. W. Brown, J. Timmis, F. Reeves, E. O'Sullivan, A. N. Other.

The following will represent the Palermo A. C. in the return match with Retiro to-day, at Retiro. Play to commence at 12.30 p.m.

J. Lea, W. Buchanan, T. D. Belton, H. Fraser, C. Belton, G. H. Cooke, T. Donovan, H. Calcutt, L. G. Cooke, E. Curran and F. Patxot.

The following gentlemen will represent the B. A. and R.R.A.C. in a cricket match against the St. Laurence C.C, at Belgrano. Play commence at 1 p.m.

J. D. Pryce, P. H. Taylor, T. W. Pryce, J. R. S. Fox, W. Chevob, H. McConnell, W. Fowler, A. H. Higgins, H. McKinnel, T. Allen and A. N. Other.

For the benefit and comfort of all who intend honouring the cricket at Flores and Lomas to-day with their presence, we beg to advise that lunch at both places will be supplied by the Criterion—a guarantee that they will be well looked after.

The Lomas match, of course, will be the event of the day in this line, and as will be seen by the respective teams, which we give, it should be a very interesting fixture indeed, both sides being strong:

Lomas.

J. O. Anderson, H. B. Anderson, G. S. Anderson, A. Anderson, G. Gonsalves, R. L. Halstead, C. A. Tabor, C. R. Tupholme, G. M. Comber, F. H. Jacobs and P. L. G. Bridger.

Hurlingham.

J. R. Garrod, H. E. Bedford, T. A. Forde, L. J. Hutton, C. W. Thompson, E. L. Rumboll, F. Bennett, M. G. Fortune, E. L. Wilson, D. Gibson and Lacey (pro).

The following team will represent Chiledonai v. Flores 2nd, XI on Flores Ground at Caballito, on arrival of 10.30 train from Once station.

C. Hearne, McQuade, B. Stanton, Minturn, E. Luck, J. Tuck, Kelly, H. Power, N. Dolphin, A. R. Clow, and A. N. Other.

The Report drawn up by the Committee of the Hipodromo Nacional and laid before their general meeting held on 18th inst. was handed round in pamphlet form to-day. It explains the difficulty that ended in the closing of the Club and which it appears was originated by the rather arbitrary action of the Jockey Club in monopolizing the days available for racing. The license of $50,000 and the decrease in the number of meetings drove the committee to the extreme lengths that the members have since ratified. They saw it was no use in striving to reverse the adage of the big fish eating the small one and preferred prudence to valour. We may add that the ultimatum of the National Club to the Jockey Club was, Rent of $50-000 per year for 3 years and a clause stipulating the right of the National Club to 22 meetings per annum at expiration of the 3 years. The Jockey Club would not consider the clause and the war broke out.

The Revd. M. P. Ferguson of Chascomus, has favoured us with a very kind acknowledgment of free space given to his church last year in our columns.

SMOKING CONCERT.

The smoking Concert held at the Eden Theatre last night for the benefit of the British and Benevolent Society was a great success as far as attendance and performance was concerned, but threatened to come to a premature conclusion, in consequence of the really disgraceful conduct of a party of men who occupied two of the boxes, and who from their behaviour forgot that they have always been considered gentlemen, but evidently do not know how to sustain the character. Mr. R. Bridgett, our worthy Consul, made a capital chairman, but at one time threatened to leave the chair; in consequence of the disturbance.

The first part opened with a piano forte solo by Mr. J. H. Holtum, who was followed by Mr. Dale with the song "At the Ferry," very well sung. In the absence of Mr. R. H. Morgan, Mr. Barlow played a bajo solo which was followed by the plantation ditty "Uncle Tom" well sung by Mr. R. Harrison, who had to re-appear, singing as an encore "Gwine back to Dixey." Mr. Greenlees next appeared to very great advantage in an "Italian Boat Song," which was vociferously encored. In reply he gave "Anchored" splendidly. Mr. J. S. Lee was also encored for a very funny song entitled "And the verdict was." Mr. H. C. Thompson was remarkably good in the humorous ditty "I lub a lubly gal, I do," and the first part was finished by Mr. Permain, who sang a coster song "If it wasn't for the 'Ouses in between."

During the interval many of the audience enjoyed the fresh air by going across to the circus, which was found to be full.

Previous to commencing the second part, the chairman made some remarks about the present position of the Society, and said that subscriptions were sadly needed as they were falling off, and also cautioned the public against indiscriminate alms, giving, which alms if sent to the Society would be properly administered.

The principal items in the second part, which was considerably interrupted, were "Jack's Yarn," well sung by Mr. J. H. Holtum, who sang "The Midshipmite" as an encore, "Angel Gabriel" by Mr. R. Harrison, also encored, Mr. J. S. Lees' comic song "Only a Year Ago," Mr. Permain's capital "Sneezing Serenade," and "They have both changed their Occupation now" by Mr. C. P. Robinson, who was first received with tremendous applause, and encored twice, singing "Estoy Conforme" and "Oblige a Lady." This will probably be Mr. Robinson's last appearance, as he intends leaving very shortly for South Africa, which from a social and artistic view is much to be regretted, as in his special songs he is without a rival, and his loss will be much felt at smoking concerts.

The concert wound up by the audience joining in "God Save the Queen" and "Oid Mortales."

Messrs. Evill, Greenlees and Thompson fulfilled the arduous duties of accompanists to everybody's satisfaction.

LA PLATA.

(From our own Correspondent)

Jan. 25th.

The port is suffering from an extraordinary plethora of grain. The five fiscal warehouses can hold no more. Besides the wagons actually waiting to be unloaded, some 400 wagons are also crowded up on the adjoining sidings all full of grain. The platforms are however will nigh empty as the Western Railway refuses to deposit on them grain at the mercy of the elements. Two or three hundred tarpaulings should be supplied by Government to meet this want as their cost would be quickly defrayed.

The surveys of the extension from General Pinto to Villegas have been approved and the construction of the new railway will shortly be commenced.

THEATRES.

The Arcadia was crowded last night and the performance was not concluded till 12.30 this morning, Mr. Mudd showed himself to be an admirable artist. Miss Taylor was prevented by indisposition from lending her promised aid. The speech made by Mudd shook the house. Mr. Wirth was presented by Mr. Mudd with a gold medal, and in his reply expressed his warmest gratitude to the Anglo-Saxon community for the supported extended to him and his company. It was in short a night to be remembered by both those on the benches and those in the arena.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The great news of yesterday was the fall of Makallé, predicted by our colleague in Printing House square, London, more than a week ago. Our Italian friends are, naturally, in low spirits over the business, but they may well feel proud of the heroic defence of Colonel Galiano and his plucky little band, which reflects lustre on the Italian army. There is no knowing what complications may arise out of this defeat of the Italians, and we most fervently hope that neither Emperor William, nor Czar Nicholas, nor President Cleveland, nor Uncle Paul Kruger will take it into his head to send a telegram of congratulation to King Menelik or our countryman McKinnon, and thus put the fat in the fire again in Europe, Asia, Africa and America.

Last night we despatched our Senior Editor to Mar del Plata to report on the place, return to-morrow morning, see Napper Tandy and tell us "how it stands." We tremble lest his first impressions may be unfavorable and that he report it as a most distressful place. Our Senior Editor was anxious for a cheap run out to some place or other, to get rid of the Monroe Doctrine influenza which has half the editors in the world on the broad of their backs to-day.

Our ceaseless colleague El Diario, in its first issue yesterday, reports an interview with President Roca in the Government House when Mr. Kennedy, British Minister to Chile, called to salute H.E. President Roca on that occasion certainly did ask the editor of the STANDARD if it were true what the STANDARD that morning had published, that they were selling picked young girls in Ashantee for five shillings each, and if it were possible to purchase a couple of thousand of these young girls for colonies at Neuquen, Chos Malal and Rio Negro and Pampa Central, to which our senior editor replied that all depended on the Government sending a proper agent to Ashantee to bid for the girls, and he proposed that Mr. M. Lainez be named as a fit and proper commissioner for the business; but General Roca suggested that Mr. Alkaine or Mr. Stand-by-O'Gorman, who both speak English fluently, would be more up to the mark.

On Tuesday next there will be another fashionable wedding at dear old Flores. Mr. Herbert Dolphin will lead to the Hymeneal Altar Isabel, the lovely daughter of Mr. B. W. Gardom, the great Railway contractor. The marriage will take place at St. Peter's at Flores at 8-30 p. m., After the ceremony, there will be a reception at the Quinta of the fathers of the bride.

A second drawing in the same week of the Lottery took place yesterday, and at least 50,000 people were utterly disgusted at not having won "la grande". The following are the principal prizes drawn:—$50,000 19378; $10,000 20000; $5,000 1959; $2,000 10484. 7263; $1000 18515, 16979, 21890: $5003363, 8703. 18050. 1413, 10522, 20590, 17072, 6434, 2009 6992; $200, 7055, 7003, 2827, 2555, 19807, 21781, 14954, 22642, 2323, 20169, 17883, 21943, 4041, 11027, 4278, 8122, 5017, 21173, 4350.

The management of the Immigrants' Home announces that 142 domestic servants are awaiting a call to be cooking and scrubbing. The newly arrived Napolitana or Gallega often turns out out a good servant as she is at any rate free trom the pretensions and "manias" apparently so inherent in her sister who has become degenerated by many years' service in our midst.

The well-known George of Calle Rivadavia fame has retired from business and begs to thank the English community for their patronage. Many will miss George when they turn in to have their sandwich and chop, we trust, however, to see him back soon again.

We sincerely regret to announce the death of Mr. Henry Aylmer Still which took place yesterday at the British Hospital. The funeral, at which the Revd. Pelham Ogle will officiate, leaves the Hospital this morning at 8.30.

The campaign of the Argentino against the scandals in the Lottery are likely to lead to good results. The public are now mentioning names connected with the business. At the drawing yesterday the globes and glass balls were found to be "out of order," and the drawing had to be stopped three or four times. The Extracto was printed in a new shape, and caused a general howl of disgust. The type is so small that any unscrupulous "agencia" in the camp or Interior could alter it without fear of detection.

"No more rooms for love, money, or manslaughter" was the news from the Argentine Bray, Necochea, yesterday. All the hotels are crammed, and any money is offered for lodgings in private houses. Necochea takes the cake this year.

Another little boy, La Voz de San Carlos, intends to enter the E. B. shortly, to keep the interests of the new parish, (Almagro) well before the public.

The old Operai Hall will resound tomorrow night to the strains of a splendid concert by the pupils of the Conservatorio, to "amenizar" the distribution of prizes to the pupils. It is needless to say that the programme is of the "hors ligne" order.

In Calle Santa Adelaida yesterday a peripatetic milch-cow ran a muck and tossed a little boy breaking his arm. The milkman in charge of her in his endeavour to save the child also received several nasty blows from the animals horns, though he was not seriously injured. The accident will probably lead to some restriction being placed on the liberty of these necessary animals—part and parcel of domestic life in our city.

Thursday night there will be a grand gala "funcion" at the Arcadia when a benefit will be given in aid of the Irish Orphanage and the British Hospital. A special programme will be given and some new novelties that will eclipse anything yet seen in Buenos Aires.

Our Chilian friends accuse us, on this side of the water, of prating of peace while preparing for war. "Et tu Brute!" Is not the whole world doing the same: John, Jonathan, Emperor William and the Czar of Russia are all at it. As a further indication of peace Argentina has just ordered 12,500 tents in Germany and 50,000 pair of boots here. We suggest to the Minister of War to have springs put under the heels of all these boots by Mr. Emilio Magaldi of 1285 Calle Cuyo, who is the inventor and patentee of an India-rubber pad under the heel that has a curious effect on the muscles of the legs, making the wearer feel as if he is lighter than before and could walk a hundred miles without fatigue. They cost only 15 cents gold the pair.

The racket of the Sociedad Cosmopolita at Almagro continues to-day, with a prodigious programme: Rifle practice, Raffle, Roulette, Bazaar, games, music galore, etc., etc.

Marker! Score for Prince George's Hall. Its fortune is made. The Committee of the Progreso Club intend to give their Carnival Ball there. All the fair dames and damsels, the wives and daughters of the members have heard such praise of the elastic floor at Prince George's that they insist on having a hop on it. They are right There never has been, nor is there such another ball room, public or private, in this city, or any part of South America.

Calle Grafton street threatens to be a difficulty, as Mr. Terms-cash Brown protests against changing the name. Strange fact. In Dublin they had the same question when the people determined to change the name of Sackville street to Daniel O'Connell street. All the people resident in the street protested, nevertheless the change came, and the street to-day is only known as O'Connell street. So with this Calle Piety street, which is a misnomer, as there is really no piety whatever in the block or square asphaltized. And to call it Calle Grafton is more euphonious.

We received yesterday from a correspondent a letter giving a telegram to the Nacion dated London 21st inst. which contradicted the note from the Foreign Office to Mr. Olney about the movement of the British Squadron. We, however, stand bye on the business until the papers arrive. Meanwhile, we stoutly assert that the people of England value more the friendship of the United States than the possession of any territory of, or indeed all Venezuela put together.

Our Montevidean friends are looking ahead in the holiday line, and are now devoting what they have quite as good a right as other people to call their minds to consideration of the possibility of making Holy Saturday (April 3rd) a holiday, to give them an opportunity of burning and blowing up Judas Iscariot properly, and otherwise innocently amusing themselves. The banks are agreeable (which is not always the case with them, especially when asked for discounts) provided the Government arranges as to how liabilities falling due on the date are to be dealt with. Such a gay and festive Government as Borda's cannot possibly refuse to do this.

Look out for your big toes when you go to Venezuela. The Monroe Doctrine, most unaccountably, omits to warn the world of the danger, but it is there, in the shape of the fabled vampire. It is classed among the carnivorous animals, and in some districts is very abundant. It is fond of human blood, and attacks sleepers at night by making a small incision in the great toe. Much blood can be lost in one night, although the puncture is microscopic. Consul Plumacher, in a report to Washington some years ago, says that while many may be sceptical respecting this fact, personal experience has convinced him of its truth. The popular impression of the vampire's habits is that it fastens itself upon the throat of the sleeping victim, and while fanning him with its wings, so that he may not awaken, sucks his lifeblood away. According to Consul Plumacher's account, the Venezuelan vampire only attacks a man's big toe, and while he may lose considerable blood the attack is not fatal nor especially serious.

We are requested to announce that the Revd. John T. Stevenson, B.D., of Quilmes, will occupy the pulpit of St. John's this (Sunday) morning, the Rector taking his place at Quilmes. The Revd. T. O. Evans preaches at San Martin at a quarter to four. There will be an Anglican service at San Martin to-day (Sunday) at 3.45 p.m.

It may interest our cattle lords and importers of live-stock here to learn that the Montevideo Government has decided that the 2½ % additional duty recently imposed does "not" apply to cattle.

If girls, pretty and ugly, would only learn to cook well, they would never die in single blessedness, as a profound philosopher has laid it down as an incontrovertible axiom that "Six things are requisite to create a happy home. One of these is a good cook, and the other five are money." A girl who can cook well can land a rich husband whenever she pleases.

The accounts of the voyage of the Evolutionary Squadron under Captain Barilari to New Gulf read very well indeed, and the whole little fleet seems to have behaved admirably. Not a single hitch or mishap occurred, although every day on the way down the vessels were kept wheeling about like a squadron of cavalry. It is very creditable indeed to the captains and crews of all the vessels. It is the first time that such an Argentine fleet has gone farther South than Bahia Blanca.

Now, doctors, naturalists, and all of the scientific ilk, if you want to have a look at Mr. Reade's bones (Not his own bones, but the Indian's) and arrow head come along quickly, as he means to leave the curiosity with us for only a few days. He expects to get at least £1000 stg. for it from the British Museum, which shows that in Chubut everything that glitters is gold, contrary to the generally received opinion on the subject. Even gingham umbrellas are gold in Chubut.

Special Notices.

The Soirée Electricale at the American Church next Tuesday night will be the first event of the kind held here. The fairly like marvels of electricity mingled with music, refreshments, a pleasant social gathering, and a worthy object, all combine to excite great interest.

Saturday, January 25th 1896.

Gold Premium.

FIRST RING 219.80%
SECOND RING..... 219.70%

All the bearish sledge-hammers were again actively at work to-day, and, in spite of the heavy demands of the weekly settlement, the gold premium was reduced as low as 219%, amid the jeers of exulting bears, and the bellowing of angry bulls. Our Financial Sphinx has triumphed over the market and its distrust; he is now trampling on the few who dare to resist the fall.

The "fiat," of the oracle went out eleven days ago—since then gold has fallen eleven points, steadily and irresistibly. Some may believe that it is the export of wool, wheat, maize and other produce; we believe that there is something far more forcible at the back of the falling tendency in the gold market, as it is difficult to think that Minister Romero would venture to announce an impending fall in the premium on such a slender basis as a heavy supply of produce. There is something in the wind of which the market knows nothing.

A million gold dollars were sold to-day at the first ring. Business for cash amounted to nearly half a million dollars; the premium opened at 220.50%, fell to 219%, rose to 220.30%, and closed at 219.80%. Three hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 221%, fell to 219.80%, and closed at 220.80%. Business for end of February embraced two hundred thousand dollars; the premium opened at 224%, fell to 222.50%, and closed at 224%. A small amount was sold for the end of March; the premium opened at 225% and closed at 226.50%. As we glance at the above quotations we cannot help remarking that the stiffening tendency in time bargains looks decidedly suspicious, and the market should not lose sight of the fact. Operators are paying a contango of one point for end of month, of 4 points for end of February, and 6½ points for end of March. This looks queer.

Stocks and shares were dull. National Cedulas F changed hands at 77.60. Depositors' Bonds of the National Bank rose again buoyantly to 98. Spanish Bank shares advanced also to 111.50. Catalinas shares were neglected at 3.20.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

Another heavy withdrawal of gold took place to-day at the liquidator's counter—no less than $530,000 gold. Thus since the beginning of the month over 2,000,000 dollars gold have been withdrawn at the several settlements. These systematic withdrawals and the heavy contango differences are special features in the gold market this month. The oldest heads at the ring are puzzled at the march of the speculation. We wonder when the cat will be let out of the speculative bag.

In exchange circles a fair amount of business was done to-day at hardening rates. Business on London was passed at 48 5/16d., and in francs at 5.09 to 5.09½ on France and 5.10 to 5.10½ on Belgium. Marks were quoted at 4.13 on Germany. A lot of exchange is coming on the market owing to the large business doing in produce; for a long time the market has not been so freely supplied with exchange and gold.

Paper money is in as stiff demand as ever. Discounts are hard at 8% for paper and nominal at 7% for gold. The sharp "pase" in gold shows a squeeze in the market.

Telegrams from Rio Janeiro quoted exchange on London this evening at 9 5/32d.

Matters are very hum-drum in the interior. Friction in political circles in Entre Rios over the cumpulsory resignation of a school-board member; idem in San Francisco with the manager of the Banco de la Nacion branch as protagonist; a breakout of the convicts in the Mendoza penitentiary that only resulted in some sharp-shooting without fatal consequences, all returning eventually under pressure to a recognition of their evil ways; prosecution of the road from 25 de Mayo in Mendoza to Ñorquin, which will be finishd next month; in fact everything unusually quiet and matter of fact.

Catamarca advices report a crisis in baskets. The demand for grapes has been so sustained that there are no more baskets. Barrels will now have to be taken on, and if they are not so picturesque they are at least more capacious. Seems a pity that trade should be paralysed for lack of wicker-bottoms.

A correspondent writing from the valley of Siancas, Jujui, reputed the best of that province, says that the drought and locust combined are converting the place into a Sahara, stretching on to Valle de Lerna in Salta where the locust is showing a grim partiality for tobacco and rice. At Campo Santo the "tabardillo" has made its appearance in the stock. There never was such a florishing run of plagues apparently as at present, and turning up so inopportunely too, as if made to measure.

In spite of the lethargy, in trade there is no lack of initiative in Paraguay as we see by late advices that when Congress reopens it will be asked to consider and vote funds for a port. The colonies seem to be doing well, especially that styled the Cosmé Colony. which is growing apace and will soon be reinforced by a contingent of Australians from this city.

Parties who have not paid their licenses should take notice that the dockets will be ready after 1st prox., the final date for payment being 31st March. The juries of appeal will begin sitting from 8th to 15th February for 30 working days.

The ingenuity with which new taxes are ferreted out, sharpened up and insinuatingly applied holds the candle up to art. At Cordoba the latest idea is to make cereal buyers pay a license of $200 each, and though it has been pointed out that the buyers or rather the receivers of the cereals are really only employees of some exporting firm, which at times runs to as many as 20 or 30, the Government would not enter into any fine distinctions and stuck like a leech to their programme. The Centro del Comercio's services as a mediator have been enlisted with a view to blanding the wholesale vigour of the tax, and the usual petition is under consideration.

If any confirmation were required of our remarks made yesterday, regarding the fall in the price of fat beeves, it is fully supplied by the sale just made in the Corrales of some remarkably fine beeves from the South. The owner of them in December refused $110 a head and was reluctant to send them home for sale on his own account. They have just been sold in the Corrales, but the price fetched was only between 50 and 60 dols. Had they been sent home they would have realized even according to present prices at least between 80 and 90. However, estancieros will learn in time and will be content to take the prices that rule on the day. A central market somewhere to the south of town is what is required, where exporters can always be sure of finding the animals they want at current prices without wandering half over the Province to look for them, and even then perhaps find that either they are not suitable or the price asked is far too high for the home market.

About four hundred thousand gold dollars changed hands at the second ring in a steady market. Business for Monday delivery embraced two hundred thousand dollars; the premium opened at 220% and closed at 219.70%. One hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 220 ⅛ %, fell to 220%, and closed at 220.20%. Seventy thousand dollars were sold for the end of February at 224 and 223 ½ % premium, and something for end of March at 226%. Catalinas shares fell to 3.10.

The following is a summary of the operations effected to-day at the second ring :—

Mr. Vernet has favored us with plans of all the new colonies that are being started on the Pacific Railway line in the South of Cordoba, the great alfalfa region about which our correspondent Don Emilio Schroeder is writing at present in our columns. Those interested in that part of the country can inspect the plans in our office. It is relly wonderful how that part of the Interior is growing.

The Governor of Chubut has asked the Minister of the Interior for funds to make a high road from Port Madryn to the mountains.

The Engineers Departments has asked the Minister of the Interior for $4,300 towards the cost of dredging the ports of Entre Rios.

Messrs. Madero and Co. have petitioned the Minister of the Interior for certificates of the amount spent on the lock and draw-bridge for the North Darsena.

SALES AND AUCTIONS.

We call attention to Messrs. Collet and Llambi's great land auction advertised in another column which comes off on 3rd February. The land to be sold is situated in Puan. only 15 leagues from Bahia Blanca, and embraces a superficies of nearly four kilometric leagues, prime camp beautifully situated, well watered and wooded and girdled by railways. These southern lands, especially when well situated, always command a very ready market so that there should or will be no lack of "interesados." The property figures on the map with the name of Carlos Casalle, and is surrounded by Garciarena, Argerich, Anchorena, Lloveras and Olivé properties, being only five leagues from Berraondo station F.C.B.B. and N. O. and near the route of the Strawberry line. It will be sold with upset price of $5 the hectare, or say only $42,500 the league, which is very cheap for land all wired in, and conditions of payment are very favourable. The fact that the place has been rented up to end of last year at $600 per annum shews that the reserve is low.

The sale is reported from the estancia San José, Necochea, of 600 ordinary and 200 mestizo Hereford steers at $35 per head, seller Dr. Emilio Lamarca, buyer Mr. Benjamin Anchorena.

The sale of the day was brought off by Messrs. Funes Lagos who realized the splendid property Calle Cerrito 1018-52, 10 fine houses, belonging to the heirs of the late Don N. Calvo, nearly at the corner of the Plaza Libertad, as follows:—

Cerrito 1018-20, 2 houses, 8.93x20.40 mts. for $24,500 to Jose Perez Mendoza.
Do 1026-28, 2 houses, 8.75x20.75 do do $25,000 to do.
Do 1034-86, 2 houses, 8.54x21.10 do do $26,900 to do.
Do 1042-44, 2 houses, 8.90x21.44 do do $26,600 to do.
Do 1050-52, 2 houses, 7.60x21.21 do do $26,000 to do.

PRODUCE MARKETS.

Saturday and a low gold market proved their influence on business. It is next to impossible to find parties who care to enter into large operations, the fluctuations are too rapid for any one to form a calculation, exporters and artistas prefer to stand off a while until affairs get more settled, we are standing on a peculiar foundation, the premium down and produce prices firm, such is the present situation. Owing to the tardy arrivals of the new wheat crop, maize finds an easy outlet, as exporters have to fill their chartered vessels. The telegrams from Europe report Argentine cereals firm, wheat rising, as is also the case with linseed; the wet weather has played a bad trick on the latter, putting back arrivals for some time, causing a certain relax in operations. From some quarters we heard that the transactions in cereals were larger to-day than yesterday, but we consider this doubtful.

The wool arrivals are on a par with other days, the present stock in the Central is 13,205,834 kilos; in the Constitucion and other barracas there are more or less 4,000,000 kilos more.

The telegrams from London on the colonial wool auctions shew that prices are well sustained; 85,000 bales were sold during the week at the previous rates; 4000 bales were kept over. The attendance was large and competition brisk amongst the purchasers. The demand was strong in merino wools; large lots were bought for the continent, North American buyers were also well represented.

The sales here did not pass 600,000 kilos, a restraint was noticed to-day amongst fashionable artistas; this was strange to a certain extent, as the good news from Antwerp is confirmed.

The current prices have not changed, Cross lincoln was picked up at 9.50 and 9.60, fine wool was at 8.20, 8.70 and 9 dollars.

CONSTITUCION.

Cross Lincoln wool—5000 kilos at 9.60, 7000 do 9.30, 10000 do 9.20 5000 do 9.60, 7000 do 8.70, 2000 do 8.80.

Regarding the sales of wool in Australia we take the following from an exchange, from this one can easily compare the difference of the clip yield in that country with our own :—

"The wool sales of the year closed with a firm market and good competition. The prices reached the highest figure for twelve months. Greasy crossbreds sold at 10 ½ d.-¾ d. more than was paid for the same wool previously this season. All round the prices were distinctly above those of a month ago. Throughout the sales Continental buyers appropriated the lion's share of the purchases, but most of the bright showy sorts of greasy fleece were taken for America, and crossbreds generally for the English market. The total number of bales offered during the series was 336,000, an increase of 1,690 upon the corresponding period last year, of which were sold 304,800, an increase of 34,000. The public sales will be resumed on January 6th."

The weak closes very favourably for maize, although prices have not reached the desired 4 dollars, still the transactions all round have satisfied both consignatarios and exporters. In the darsena, 3.80 was paid for maize on hand, in the Riachuelo 3.40 for morocho and yellow, and in the Once 3.30 for morocho and 3.50 for the yellow. Messrs Pallacios, Dellepiani and Co. sold 3,000 bags at 3.65 in the darsena, in the same place another lot of 4,000 bags was sold at 3.35. There were several other sales but we could not get the amount.

The sales and demand for wheat maintain their footing Exporters have bought up several large parcels, from Rosario we hear that 1000 tons were sold to be delivered at once at 7.15, another of 500 tons, on board at the same price, a lot of 42,000 bags wes also arranged but the price is kept under reserve, 11,000 bags of old wheat were also sold privately. Linseed of the new crop was sold in the darsena at 10.60. Bran is still selling at 3 dollars.

The stock on hand of cereals in the Central is as follows:—

Wheat.....	66,747 bags
Maize.....	90,275 "
Other cereals....	3,465 "
Flour.....	3.699 "
Total.....	164,186 "

Wheat opened very firm yesterday in Rosario. in the first hour several operarions were made at 7 dollars, if the gold market were not so weak the rate of 7 dollars would certainly change to a higher price. Consignatarios ask 7.20 for lots to be delivered during February. Business must take a spurt, as several vessels are daily arriving to load cargoes of produce, to despatch them quickly exporters are obliged to pick up all parcels on hand. Taking this into consideration, we would not be surprised to see wheat quoted at 7.50.

The sales yesterday were, 300 tons, for 15th February, at 7.00, 1,500 quintals for the same month, same price, 250 tons to be delivered during February at 6 75, 2,000 quintals to be received within 8 days at 7.10, 3,500 bags at 7.15 and some others at 6.70 and 7.00, for a parcel on hand 7.20 was paid, this was the highest price reached.

Maize is still in dormant condition, the only operation known was one of 3,000 bags superior exporting quality at 3.08. The other classes were quoted as usual without buyers. Transactions in linseed are limited; the prices offered do not correspond to those asked by owners; the current rates are for superior 9.80 and 10.00; for other classes from 8 to 9.50 are paid. Every day large consignments arrive, which are at once shipped, as they belong to previous contracts, a parcel of 5,000 tons which left here some time ago was sold in Buenos Aires at 3.12 gold.

Despite the news from Europe prices in wheat in Montevideo are falling. The arrivals yesterday were not as large as previous ones, for this reason we are surprised that so little business was done. Exporters and buyers operate on a very limited scale, the only important sale reported was a lot of 17,000 bags from San José at 2.29, some 200 bags from Canelones were also sold at 1.90 to 2.25. Maize has slightly improved, export buys freely at 95 cents the 100 kilos; at this price 1,000 bags were sold and 1,800 do at 94 and 90 cents.

The s.s. Uruguay has been chartered to take 19,000 salted hides, 2,000 dry hides and 30,000 horns for Havre, 300 bales of wool for Dunkerque.

On the 22nd inst. the saladeros in Gualeguaychu commenced their faenas, as to the price paid for novillos it is not yet known. The Liebig and Co. Saladero offer 10 dollars gold per head.

Wool is ploughing steadily ahead, the middling classes being the most solicited; in the different barracas some 2,000 bales were sold at prices between 2.25 and 2.55. Some operations were also made in lambs and belly wool, the conditions are reserved. The other sales were :—9,000 kilos from Minas at 2.30, 7,000 do from Rocha at 2.35 and 3,000 do from Molles at 2.45. The other sales reached 33,000 kilos at 2.15 and 2.30 per 10 kilos.

"The bright, moving picture of the country's trade, commerce and production on the opening year consoles us with the conviction that its future is superior to human error and independent of individual influence."

The above lines, quoted from THE STANDARD of 3rd inst., are the true expression of our sentiments respecting the present position and expected future of the country, if we are to judge from what has occurred to us, as a minute fraction in its common wealth, during the year that has expired, and the hopeful advent of the new one on which we have entered.

If we take our branch of trade, and instance our business in particular, we have to admit that the prospects as regards the country at large are not at all exaggerated in the transcript we have made us of, as the increase in our concern has been beyond our most sanguine expectations during the old year, and, on the eve of the new one, promise is given of a very satisfactory augmentation.

To keep pace, therefore, with this hopeful state of affairs we have made ample provision, and our stock, which is always kept in adequate supply, will be periodically increased with every novelty to meet the increasing requirements of the year.

British ss. Ceuto from the roads to the Darsena to discharge.

DEPARTURES.

British ss. River Mersey from Dock 1 for Rio Janeiro with live stock.

Do do Eddie from Riachuelo at La Plata to load.

RIVER STEAMERS.

The steamers Cosmos, Eolo, Golondrina and Helios from Montevideo and Olimpo from Asuncion will arrive to-morrow at the South Basin.

The steamers San Martin for Asuncion. Venus for Montevideo, Cosmos for Salto and intermediate ports, Lafayette for Colonia, Astrea for Gualeguay and Rio Victoria for Santa Fé will leave to-morrow.

Eolo will arrive here to-morrow morning from Montevideo and will leave in the afternoon for the same port.

GENERAL.

The agent of the Lloyd Argentino has petitioned Government for packet privileges for the steamer Wittekind.

Messrs. Antonio Lopez and Co. have asked for a renewal of packet privileges for the steamer Ciudad de Cadiz.

The Captain of the Swedish barque Anna Sofie which anchored to-day in the roads from Rio, reported that dur.ng the voyage two of his crew had died. A sanitary guard was at once sent on board to wacth the health of the men for fear any case of a suspicious character should appear.

Bills of health were to-day issued to the Falkenburg for Bremen, Sempio for Genoa, Bretagne for Rio, South Wales for Montevideo, Kestor for London, and J. W. Taylor for Liverpool.

The mails by the French packet Chili and P.S.N. boat Potosi from Liverpool should be delivered to-morrow. The Chili should enter the La Plata dock at 5 p.m. to-morrow; but her passengers will be placed on board the Conde Kalnoki which will meet her in the roads, and will be landed at the South Basin.

Exporters of live-stock have of late been so worried by petty annoyances and difficulties in the Madero Port that some of them are inclined to try shipping their cargoes from Montevideo. The Falkenburg will set the example, much to its prejudice for the moment, and will leave for the neighbouring port to take on board 1.000 wethers for French ports.

The passengers for Buenos Aires by the Potosi, should they not have time to get on board the Eolo which comes up to-night, will arrive on Monday.

Neither the tug Presidente Mitre in the La Plata port nor the Saraca in front of the Northern Basin, has yet been set afloat.

On Monday or Tuesday the Itaparica should leave for Hamburg and the Besratael for Rosario.

The Manilla left Saint Vincent to-day on her voyage from Genoa to this port.

The Sicily, J. W. Taylor and Ethelaida should to-morrow leave respectively for Rosario, La Plata, and London and Antwerp.

The Cordoba from Hamburg and Lowenburg from Bremen, are expected in the port of Montevideo.

The French s.s Colonia rrom the La Plata port arrived to-day in Dunkirk.

Freights for live-stock to England continue to fall and have already reached £4-10/ for horned cattle. One shipper is reported to be buying up at this rate every vessel he can lay his hands on, for Deptford, in order to corner the market and relet at his own price. People have tried that sort of thing before and burnt their fingers.

The latest advices from the Smithfield market represent prices unchanged at about 3/- the stone for both beef and mutton.

The National transport Villarino is on her way back from Patagones. She brings a number of passengers and a big cargo. The freight for cargo has been reduced 30%, which is a step in the right direction. The Villarino will retarn to the South Coast in February next.

Talking to, preaching at, or beseeching port authorities is just about as profitable a task as swearing at a stone wall—not even a qualified practitioner would make an impresion. The Riachuelo bed is rising so steadily that after the last storm the depth has decreased in some parts as much as 5 feet, and as the place is full of vessels the difficulty of moving about is superhuman. According to the inspection office, from the market to Tres Esquinas alone, 108,500 cubic metres have to be taken out. At the Vuelta de Rocha in parts there is only 14 feet of water. The dredges are in full swing but are quite inadequate to cope with the amount of work to be done. and yet the Government shews no sign of putting more on. There is no system or order in the way the Boca is looked after. If there were, it would be easier to keep the banks in check.
